

Homework Exercise: Complete the sentences with the correct adjective.

|             |           |              |            |
|-------------|-----------|--------------|------------|
| confused    | envious   | nervous      | depressed  |
| excited     | proud     | disappointed | frustrated |
| relieved    | disgusted | jealous      | surprised  |
| embarrassed | lonely    | suspicious   |            |

1. He gets very ..... every time another man looks at his girlfriend.
2. I felt very ..... when my son was chosen for the national football team.
3. She became extremely ..... when her husband died and she cried a lot.
4. I was very ..... about driving again after my car crash.
5. I felt ..... when I said "congratulations" to a woman because I thought she was pregnant, but she wasn't!!
6. I was very ..... when all my students came to class on time.
7. I feel very ..... when my English teacher explains some English grammar several times but I still can't understand him.
8. I was very ..... when I failed my final exam.
9. Sometimes I feel very ..... living on my own with nobody to talk to.
10. My girlfriend was ..... when she found lipstick on my shirt and smelled perfume on my clothes.
11. My grandfather gets ..... because he's old and he's got a bad memory.
12. I felt ..... when my neighbour bought a brand-new Ferrari.
13. The children got very ..... when they were opening their presents last Christmas.
14. I was very ..... to hear that nobody was hurt in the crash.
15. I felt completely ..... when I saw an overweight man wearing a thong on the beach.