

Key takeaways from the writing

1. Title + just your name at the end

2. Apostrophes '''

3. Capitalization

The Royal Institute of Technology (specific)

A technological institution (general)

4. Word order (syntax)

a. adverb vs. adjective

I speak English very well/fluently. (after the object/noun)

I speak very good/fluent English. (before the object noun)

b. Subject + verb + object

Shakespeare wrote Hamlet. (active)

Hamlet was written by Shakespeare. (passive)

c. Exception: introducing a new subject with "there is" or "there are".

Ukraine has lots of industries, but there are lots of beautiful places as well.

5. Tasty/tasteful, to amp up/ramp up, a clean blue sky/a clear blue sky, to inspire, fertility, richness, a native country, to experience, to predict (+motherland etc)

6. Linking words/connectors/discourse markers