

HAVE TO, DON'T HAVE TO, SHOULD, SHOULDN'T, MUST, MUSTN'T?

1. If you want to learn English, you should learn the grammar.
2. If you want to learn English, you don't have to go to university.
3. If you want to learn English, you don't have to buy a dictionary (but you should use one).
4. If you want to learn English, you should/don't have to live in an English-speaking country.
5. If you want to learn English, you should/have to give money to your teacher.
6. If you want to learn English, you mustn't/shouldn't speak your own language in class.
7. If you want to learn English, you should/must speak English in class.
8. If you visit England, you mustn't drive on the right.
9. If you visit England, you shouldn't say hello to everybody you see.
10. If you visit England, you must/don't have to have a visa.
11. If you visit England, you shouldn't carry/leave a backpack on the London Underground.
12. If you visit England, you should/really must go and see a play in a West End theatre.
13. If you visit England, you have to speak English.
14. If you visit England, you shouldn't get drunk and insult people.
15. If you visit England, you should take an umbrella.
16. If you visit England, you have to change your money.
17. If you visit England, you mustn't kiss strangers on the lips.
18. If you visit England, you should be friendly and polite.