

10 'LATIN' ADJECTIVES

relevant	convenient	reliable	appropriate
significant	efficient	feasible	competent
valuable	available

1. We have highly competent consultants, with a broad range of expertise.
2. His clothes and behaviour were not appropriate for a formal meeting.
3. For further information, please refer to the relevant leaflet.
4. These English classes will allow the employees to gain valuable knowledge.
5. The talks between the two CEOs were very significant for the relationship between the two countries.
6. What time would be convenient for us to meet?
7. I'm sorry, but I'm not available at that time. Might I suggest 2.30 pm instead?
8. He works very long hours, but he's not very efficient.
9. With the extra resources, the plan now seems feasible.
10. I normally fly Ryan Air, but they're not very reliable.