

Americans Abroad is a new company that helps American people living in different countries. Here are a few examples of American culture. Please make notes about your own country under the different headings.

Restaurants Americans love dining out. They usually pay a 15% tip, but they also expect good service. Your country:	Work Americans generally work very long hours. Many start work very early in the morning and finish late in the evening. Your country:
Health care Hospitals in the US are private. Americans take out private health insurance to cover their medical bills. Your country:	Education American children have to attend school from 6 to 16 and they need to study for 12 years to achieve a high school diploma. Your country:
Travel A cheap way to travel long distances in the US is by Greyhound bus. Your country:	Food You can buy food from any country in the world in the US, especially in the big cities. Your country:
Language Many Americans expect to do everything in English, unless they have another native language. Your country:	Holidays Most Americans only have two to three weeks of holiday (vacation) a year. Your country:
Cities Most American cities stay open 24/7. You can buy anything you want, any time you want. Your country:	Crime The crime rate in many American cities is very high, and in many states people are allowed to carry (concealed) weapons. Your country: